The Honorable Stansfield Turner
Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Admiral Turner:

Enclosed are all of the papers for you and Mrs. Turner with details on our forthcoming meeting at The Homestead. There are certainly some first-rate speakers at the business sessions and we are privileged to have the Vice President as our dinner speaker. It should be a good session.

We are especially glad that you and Mrs. Turner will be with us for the entire program. Hotel reservations have been made for your arrival at about 5 p.m. on Thursday, May 11th and departure on Saturday, May 13th. We will, of course, have a car to meet your plane when it arrives at Ingalls Field and know that your always-efficient staff will have the estimated arrival time given to us in plenty of time before you put down.

As always, it will be a pleasure to have you both with us.

Sincerely,

John W. Burke, Jr.
Executive Secretary

Admiral Stansfield Turner, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Admiral Turner:

Enclosed is the agenda for the February 15-16 meeting, as distributed to our members and speakers today. I think that you will find it self-explanatory, but should there be any questions, please have one of your staff get in touch with me.

We look forward very much to hearing your remarks on Wednesday evening, February 15th. You are the only speaker of the evening, which means that you would probably begin your remarks at about 9:15 p.m.

If the morning program of February 16th looks appealing to you, and if you can fit it into your schedule, we would be delighted to have you sit in on that session and also remain for the informal buffet luncheon that will be served following adjournment.

It will be a pleasure to have you back with us and I know that everyone is especially eager to hear what you have to say.

Sincerely,

Jack Burke

Dear Admiral Turner:

Enclosed are two sets of papers, for you and Mrs. Turner, detailing our forthcoming meeting at The Homestead in Hot Springs, Virginia.

We have been working closely with [redacted] STAT on your schedule and will arrange ground transportation to meet your plane on arrival in Hot Springs. A tennis court has been reserved for you and Mrs. Turner to play on Friday afternoon and we will arrange ground transportation to get you back to the airport when you leave on Saturday morning.

The members will be delighted to have you back with them. You may have heard by this time from Mr. John E. Corette, the Chairman of the Montana Power Company, who, with his wife Sallie, will be your unofficial "hosts" for the weekend.

Sincerely,

John W. Burke, Jr.
Executive Secretary

The Director of Central Intelligence

Washington, D.C. 20505

11 APR 1977

Dear John,

I have indeed heard of your fine organization and recognize many old friends among your active and graduate members.

As you can imagine, my schedule is quite tight during these first few weeks of my new assignment. I will not be able to make the entire meeting, however, Mrs. Turner and I would like to accept the invitation to attend the black tie dinner on the evening of 13 May. My staff will be in touch to work out specifics. of the Business session on the 14th

I look forward to meeting you and the members of the Business Council and to the continued excellent rapport that has been established between the Intelligence Community and the Business Council.

Thanks again and all the best.

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER
